

Unsecured web surfing is like drinking a cup of contaminated water

Malicious websites allow bad actors to spy on you, intercept your activities and steal your data.

- Be cautious when you enter personal information online.
- The web address tells you if you are on the right website.
- And the web address should start with HTTPS.
- Finally, in case of doubt just ask!